

Today, I have written to the leadership of the Senate HELP Committee asking for their careful scrutiny of the qualifications, track record, and public statements of the nominee to be commissioner of the Bureau of Labor Statistics during upcoming hearings on the nominee. Such scrutiny is always appropriate, but especially so at this crucial juncture for the BLS.

Please see the letter at https://www.amstat.org/docs/default-source/amstat-documents/pol-bls_commissionernomination.pdf

<https://www.linkedin.com/feed/update/urn:li:share:7376715619573932032/>