Virtual Workshop
November 2, 2022
10:00 a.m. - Noon ET

The format of the workshop will be presentations from the panelists offering advice on the search process, breakout rooms around specific topics, and concluding with final advice and Q&A.

Sally Morton
is executive vice president of Knowledge Enterprise at Arizona State University. She advances research priorities, oversees the research institutes, and leads expansion of economic development and corporate partnerships. Morton is a professor in the College of Health Solutions and the School of Mathematical and Statistical Sciences.

Sastry Pantula is dean of the College of Natural Sciences at California State University-San Bernardino (CSUSB), is nationally and internationally recognized as a leader in statistical sciences. In all of his administrative roles, he has focused on enhancing the quality, quantity and diversity within the department, the division and the college. His core values are excellence, diversity and harmony: strive for excellence, enhance diversity and foster harmony.

Anne Coyle
serves as a trusted advisor to colleges and universities as they seek senior academic and functional leaders. Anne brings more than 15 years of executive search experience in the Social Impact and Education sectors at boutiques and another global firm. Anne has cultivated a deep bench of connections to prominent academic leaders, including presidents, provosts, dean, and trustees. She also managed the global recruitment of PhDs, JDs, and MDs for McKinsey.

Register here.